

File-3: Presentation of the ESR spectrum

Intensity  $I$  against the strength of the applied field as derivative curves i.e. the first derivative of the absorption curve is plotted against the strength of the magnetic field. It is easier to discern features in a derivative presentation if the absorption lines are broad.

